Can ever amuse THE Humpty again.

Mr. Geo. L. Fox, in returning thanks TO THE MILLION of their continuous and liberal patronage during THE 50

REPRESENTATIONS Of Humpty Dumpty, begs to assure his bost of admirers that nothing but the strongest desire on bis part to supply them with FRESH FUN AND NOVELTHES has brought about the termination of this UNPARAL

LELED SUCCLESS. His fortheoming new comie Fantomine of "LIFTLE RED RIDING HOOD, OR HABLEQUIN JACK AND THE BEAN STALK," which will be inaugurated on MONDAY EVENING THE ITH OF MAY, has had neither time nor expense spared upon its production, and it is with a sincere feeling of very great pride that he is enabled to state the fact that foreign nations have not been resorted to for this new production, the immense resources of the Olympic having precluded the necessity of importing aid of any description for the satisfactory completion of his new American

TOR THES PIECES, has not only placed that extensive and very valuable property at the disposal for this enterprise, but has also furnished the most costly and gorgeons contumes and single properties ever seen upon the American stage, and has urther provided the means of securing a double Opera Company and a superb Ballet Troupe, in order that nothing may be wanting for the perfect, full and worthy representation of this charming opera. With the assured hope that "Lurine" will at once take its place high in public favor, and that the expenditure thereon of labor, mind and money may be recompensued, the undersigned leaves "Lurine" to the Judgment of the public and the press.
